The statement of my income attached is true and correct. I am proposing this Parenting Plan in good faith. I have knowingly made this plan and it has not been repudiated by me. I request the Court to enter orders in conformity with this plan. I believe this plan is in the best interest of my child(ren) at this time. I will attempt to resolve any disagreement about this parenting plan with the other parent and understand that preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan. I understand that the Judge will require that I participate in a dispute resolution process before returning to court except in an emergency.
